

Blanton Museum of Art Academic Internship Program

The Blanton Museum of Art awards academic internships for University of Texas graduate students and undergraduate students. Blanton interns gain experience and knowledge within the museum environment and work on meaningful projects under the guidance of museum professionals. Academic internships are not paid, but most students are able to receive academic credit for their work through their academic advisor and the internship supervisor for their program. The Blanton welcomes and encourages students from all academic, cultural, and ethnic backgrounds to apply and is dedicated to developing a culturally diverse internship program. Academic internships are available in the following departments:

Summer 2008

Museum Education (graduate standing required)

Academic Year 2007 - 2008

Development

Special Events

Latin American Art (graduate standing required)

Museum Education (graduate standing required)

European Art (graduate standing required)

To apply for an internship, please submit the following:

- Cover letter including the applicant's name, home and university addresses, telephone numbers, email address, and departmental preference. If applying for more than one internship, please indicate order of preference.
- Full resume with education, employment history, and references
- Letter of recommendation
- Sample of academic writing
- One-page statement from the applicant regarding his or her interest in museum work and reasons for applying
- Applications must be received by April 18th, 2008.

In addition to the above opportunities, the museum offers paid graduate internships and special project internships in a variety of departments. For more information, please contact Suzanne Moore University Programs Coordinator, at suzannemoore@blantonmuseum.org. No phone calls, please.
