

BLANTON MUSEUM OF ART
MELLON FELLOWSHIPS
2022-2023

POSITION: Andrew W. Mellon Fellow in Latin American Art

REPORTS TO: Assistant Curator of Latin American Art

HOURS: 20/week

DATES: September 1, 2022 – May 31, 2023

COMPENSATION: $22,000 stipend plus benefits, $2,000 travel allowance, and $1,750 special project fund. The Department of Art and Art History is generously offering supplemental support of $8,000 toward each Mellon Fellow's in-state tuition costs.

DESCRIPTION: The Andrew W. Mellon Fellow in Latin American Art will be fully integrated into the Blanton's Department of Latin American Art and will assist the curatorial team in the research of works of art for exhibitions, installations, and publications. The Mellon Fellow will be involved in supporting some or all aspects of exhibition planning, from inception to installation, including object selection, research, writing, and display. They will also work closely with Blanton educators and staff from across the museum. The Mellon Fellow will learn about object-based teaching and interpretive strategies and may lead undergraduate and graduate classes in the galleries and in the Blanton's Julia Matthews Wilkinson Center for Prints and Drawings or via Zoom, depending on University guidelines on covid-19. They will also attend a monthly professional development seminar organized around a wide variety of themes and topics.

The Mellon Fellow will be expected to produce a project that grows out of their curatorial work at the Blanton and addresses museum priorities; this project could include a small gallery installation, electronic publication, catalog essay, label writing, collection tour, gallery talk, interpretive brochure, or audio or multimedia resource. The project will be chosen and executed under the supervision of the Curator of Latin American Art.

In addition to a $22,000 stipend and benefits, all Mellon Fellows will receive a $2,000 travel allowance to attend a museum- or object-focused conference or symposium related to their area of study and/or to travel for research related to Blanton projects, as well as $1,750 to support a special project. Their use is contingent upon University guidelines on COVID-19.

DUTIES:

- Conduct advanced object research on works in the permanent collection that will inform the selection, interpretation, and display of special exhibitions, installations, publications, and interpretive materials for the Blanton
- Write, translate, and edit publications, wall texts, and labels about works in the collection and special exhibitions at the Blanton
- Produce a project that grows out of their curatorial work at the Blanton and addresses museum priorities
- Prepare and lead UT class visits
- Participate in public and scholarly programs related to the Blanton's collections and exhibitions

- Assist with the research and evaluation of possible loans (from other institutions and private collections) and acquisitions
- Write loan letters and learn about the negotiations of loans
- Attend monthly professional development seminars organized by the Blanton
- Field scholarly inquiries and assist researchers
- Other duties, as assigned

REQUIREMENTS:

- M.A. in art history
- Must be a Ph.D. student in art history at UT Austin
- Mellon Fellows must remain enrolled at least 9 credit hours each semester in the Ph.D. program throughout the 2022-2023 academic year
- Specialization in modern or contemporary Latin American art preferred
- Reading and speaking knowledge of Spanish or Portuguese required; fluency preferred
- Ability to work independently
- Ability to flourish in a collaborative environment for the creation and implementation of exhibitions, publications, and other projects
- Proven ability to manage multiple concurrent projects and meet deadlines; highly developed organizational and interpersonal skills
- Demonstrated excellent writing ability with editing and proofreading skills

ABOUT THE BLANTON: The Blanton Museum of Art at The University of Texas at Austin is one of the foremost university art museums in the country, and has the largest and most comprehensive collection of art in Central Texas. The Blanton's permanent collection of more than 19,000 works is recognized for its European paintings, an encyclopedic collection of prints and drawings, and modern and contemporary American and Latin American art. The Blanton is considered one of the university's many Gems along with The Harry Ransom Center, the Briscoe Center for American History, The University of Texas Press, UT Libraries, the Graduate School, and the Michener Center for Writers.

TO APPLY, PLEASE SEND:

- A cover letter (If applying for more than one fellowship, please include order of preference.)
- Curriculum vitae
- 2-3 page statement of interest (no more than 750 words) addressing your research and professional interests, and how they relate to the museum's collections and activities
- Letter of recommendation from your graduate advisor
- Contact information for two additional references
- Recent academic writing sample (25 pages maximum)

Submit via email in PDF format only (please no doc files) to internships@blantonmuseum.org by January 28, 2022.

Generous funding for the curatorial fellowship program at the Blanton Museum of Art is provided by a grant from The Andrew W. Mellon Foundation.