PROGRAM GUIDELINES & POLICIES

Members contributing $250 or above annually in membership dues are eligible to participate in the Texas Reciprocal Membership program in accordance with the policy stated by each institution.

Upon presentation of proof of participation in the Texas Reciprocal Membership program, you will be entitled to the following privileges while visiting the other museums:

- Free admission during museum hours.
- Each museum determines whether reciprocal members receive free admission to a special exhibition. Reciprocal members are always allowed to purchase tickets for special exhibitions at the institution's Members' Box Office, giving them easy access to exhibitions.
- The same discount on purchases in museum stores as is offered to members of that museum (purchases must be made on the premise).
- The same discount on purchases of concert, lecture, and film tickets as is offered to members of that museum (purchases must be made on the premise).
